IRISH NATIONALISTS' CONFERENCE. America.

(By Anglo-American cable to the Dispatch.)
DUELIN, October 6.—A conference of the Irish Nationalists called by Mr. Parnell was held in this city to-day. A part of the business of the conference was the selec-tion of a deputation to visit America for the purpose of laying before the people of that country a plain statement of the situation of affairs in Ireland. John Dillon William O'Brien, Thomas Power O'Con-nor, Timothy Sullivan, and Abraham Gill taking.

were appointed to form the deputation.

There was a large attendance at the meeting, which was private. Justin McCarthy offered a resolution demanding that in the improvement to enable the people to sup-port themselves without charitable assist-ance; condemning the conduct of the Dillon, and others, and appealing to the friends of the league everywhere, and especially in America, to subscribe gene rously to the fund for the relief of dis tressed Irish tenants.

EXCITING GREAT INTEREST.

Sr. Petersburg, October 6.—A trial which is exciting great interest here, par-ticularly in Court circles, is that of Baron and embezzlement of two million roubles. The wife of the Baron implored the Czarina to secure the pardon of her hus-band, but the Czar was inflexible. It is expected that 500 witnesses will be called during the progress of the trial. LONDON, October 6.—Parliament will reassemble November 25th.

Declines to Instruct Customs Officers.

This appeal, the resolution says, is made most unwillingly, but the desperate strait in which the Irish tenants are now placed makes it absolutely necessary that assistance should be asked from friends and sympathizers throughout the world.

Mr. Parnell sent a friendly message of encouragement and hope. Messrs, Dillon and O'Brien and the other Nationalists detained at Tipperary sent a telegram expressing their regret that the "disgusting judicial farce" prevented their attending the conference. Messrs. Dillon, O'Brien, Thomas Power O'Connor, Timothy D. Sullivan, Timothy Harrington, and Thomas P. Gill, all members of Parliament, were appointed a deputation to visit America.

Covington Elects a Republican Mayor. (By telegraph to the Dispatch.)

(By telegraph to the Dispatch.)
CINCINNATI, C.. October 5.—The election in Covington, Ky., was conducted by ballot somewhat similar to the Australian system. Hitherto the method of voting has been rice roce. The result was the election of Mayor J. T. Thomas, Republican, by a majority of 146. The Republicans also elected the city treasurer, three of the five aldermen, five of the ten councilmen, and five of the ten members of the school board. The Democrats elected the assessor. This is the first Republican mayor in twenty-five years.

The Democratic candidate for mayor will contest on the ground that the votes were improperly rejected for alleged informalities.

FIRST GERMAN SETTLEMENT. rmantown Celebration in Baltimo

(By telegraph to the Dispatch.) BALTIMORE, October 6.—"The Germanday" anniversary of the first German settlement in America at Germantown, Fa., was celebrated here to-day with enthusiasm. A steady downpour of rain marred the scenic effect and prevented much outdoor demonstration. The Academy of Music was filled with an audience in full sympathy with the celebration. The principal address of the day was by Colonel Frederick Enine, editor and proprietor of the German Correspondent.

THE PIONEELS OF GREMANTOWN.

He said: "We celebrate to-day the memory of the pioneers of Germantown, who in common with the representatives of other nationalities made for themselves a new home, opened America to the influence of culture, and created a Commonwealth which was destined to give to the progressive spirit of humanity a higher and nobler form. The descendants of the pilgrims who landed from the Mayflower at Plymouth celebrate the annual recurrence of the day when their fathers first set foot on the soil of the New World. The children of the Hollanders remember their Knicker-bocker ancestors, and to these we dutifully add 'German-day.' In the great process which formed the American nation we and our ancestors have taken an active part. THE PIONEELS OF GREMANTOWN

LOYALTY TO AMERICA. "The history of the Germans in America furnishes shining examples that in all times and in every field our patrictism and love for our new country have fully equalled that of the best in our American home, no matter of what stock and descent. Never have the Germans been wanting in lovality."

Continuing, he declared himself opposed to everything that tended in the direction of the assertion of the principle that foreign-born were not as good as native

"We German-Americans," he said,
"stand to-day apart from all sectionalism
and clannishness, but we will at all times defend ourselves against any attempt to lessen our just and equal rights as component parts of the Commonwealth, or to force an immigrant who has escaped the oppression of other countries and is determined to found here by industry and devotion to his new country a new, free, and happy home into a position different from the generally-accepted principle of equal rights for all."

Rev. H. Schieb, who celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of his pastorate in this city a few weeks ago, and Dr. L. H. Steiner, librarian of Fratt's Library, also delivered addresses addresses.

A chorus of 400 children from the German-American schools, detachments from several Sængerbunds, and a strong otchestra rendered musical selections, which included "My Country, Tis of Thee," 'Star-Spangled Banner," and the triumphalsong of the Germans after the battle in Teuton-burger forest.

This evening it is intended to have a great torchicht procession.

MAGNIFICENT PARADE.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., October 6.—The first celebration of the German-American day in Milwaukee was a notable success. Its leading feature was a magnificent parade, in which elaborate and coatly floats, representing the deeds of the German-Americans in the United States were displayed. The public schools were closed and business was largely suspended during the afternoon, the streets being lined with thousands of people to witness the parade, which required an hour and a half to pass a given point. Governor Hoard and Mayor Puck reviewed it and afterwards delivered addresses. THE DAY AT OTHER PLACES.

PENSION COMMISSIONER'S REPORT. Claims Still on the Increase-The Average

Value of a Pension, tBy telegraph to the Dispatch.] Washington, October 6.—The annual re-fort of General Raum, Commissioner of Jensions, shows that at the end of the scal year 537,944 pensioners were borne Pensions, shows that at the end of the fiscal year 537,944 pensioners were borne on the rolls, of whom 501,999 are credited to the civil war. 23,922 to the Mexican war, 413 to the survivors of the war of 1812, and 8,610 to the widows of soldiers of the war of 1812. Original claims allowed during the year, 65,637; increase of 14,716 over the previous year and 6,385 over 1885. The amount of the first payments in these cases was $32,478,841.

cases was $32,478,541.

THE VALUE OF EACH PENSION.

The average annual value of each pension at the close of the fiscal year was $134. Of the completed-files system the Commissioner says, in part: "The completed-files gocket I regard as of great importance in securing a prompt adjudication of the completed cases upon motion of a claimant or his attorney. Prior to the establishment of this system the complaint was almost universal that thousands of claims were pending in the office the consideration of which has been neglected for years and that the claimants were powerless to secure their consideration. A soldier had a right to file an application for a pension and to present all the evidence necessary to prove his claim, but he has no power to bring that claim before the adjudicating division by any act on his part, the drawing of his claim from the files for that purpose being in the discretion of the file clerk.

THE COMPLETED FILES SYSTEM.

Under the completed files system the pensioners or their attorneys can, upon a proper certification that their claims are complete, have them immediately placed upon the "complete diles," where they are taken up for adjudication within a week. If the case then be found incomplete a call is immediately made for the necessary additional evidence and the case is disposed of as soon as this is received. The system is an orderly method of procedure. Up to June 30th, 92,781 claims were placed upon these files system. The system has had the effect of enabling many thousand claimants whose claims have been bending from five to twenty years to bring their claims to the attention of the bureau for adjudication and allowance, and the complaint of delay has been reduced to a minimum. As the result of these changes in business methods more work has been accomplished than ever before.

The Justice was firm, and said that after the charge against them had been disposed of they could bring a replevin suit for the recovery of the $1,574.

BIRCHALL MAKING A CONFESSION-

The Comprissioner recommends an increase of the pension for disability that prevents the performance of any manual labor from $30 to $50 per month. Under the dependent and disability act of this Congress 480,282 claims had been received up to September 30th. This enormous number of claims has taxed the office resources to the fullest extent. Congress has authorized 438 additional employes on account of these claims and the Commissioner has assigned 175 of the present employes to these cases. He has so arranged the work of the office, he says, as to permit the claims under the old laws to be rapidly adjudicated without interfering with the claims under the new laws.

If necessary he intends to ask for more clerks in December.

It is an open secret that the betrothal met with much disfavor in the South, and when the announcement was made the relatives of Miss Davis were prompt to deny it. Mr. Wilkinson has but a moderate income, and the recent loss of the old homestead by fire certainly did not help matters.

Further than this, about the time of Miss Davis's raturn from Europe a gentleman in this city received a request for certain information concerning Alfred Wilkinson and his family. The request came from a point hundreds of miles from Syracuse. The person of whom the inquiry was made understood that it had something to do with Mr. Wilkinson's relations with Miss Davis, and he answered it at length. The points touched upon by the inquirer related to Mr. Wilkinson's habits, associations, his standing in his profession, his income, etc. The failure of Wilkinson & related to Mr. Wilkinson's habits, as tions, his standing in his profession, his income, etc. The failure of Wilkinson & Co. was particularly inquired into. TUNNELLING UNDER NIAGARA The First Earth Removed with a Nickel Plated Shovel Amid Reloleing.

Niagara rejoices to-day over the commencement of the tunnel, which by the development of the tunnel, which by the development of the power it will bring will place her in position to be rightly termed the Manchester of America. The first sod was lifted at 10.42 o'clock by C. B. Gaskill, president of the Niagara Power Company, the implement used being a nickel-plated shovel. At 9:30 o'clock the members of the Niagara Power Company met at the Cataract Bank and soon after entered earriages and went to the Cataract House, where they were joined by the officers of the Cataract Construction Company and others. Arrived at the shaft the offiand others. Arrived at the shaft the offi-cers left their carriages and proceeded to the head house. An immense crowd of citizens thronged about the place.

REGINNING OF THE CEREMONIES, Around the site of the shaft a rope had een stretched, and at 10:38 the ceremonies egan. In the mean time the air was filled with the shrill whistles of the mills and the clanging of church bells. Two minutes later President Gaskill stepped forward and under the huge timbers of the headhouse of shaft No. 1 made an excellent speech. At the conclusion of the speech a silver shovel was brought forth, and at 10:42 the first shovelful of earth was removed by President Gaskill. Immediately three rousing cheers for the tunnel and President Gaskill went up from the multi-tude. This was followed by a very brief speech from E. D. Adams, president of the Cataract Construction Company. The Hen. T. V. Welch then delivered an address. shrill whistles of the mills and

THE STEAMER IROQUOIS ON FIRE. Passengers All Landed in Ignorance of th

Situation-Loss Small, New York, October 4.—An evening paper has this: The steamer Iroquois hes on a mud flat between two coal docks in Communipaw to-day worse from the stubborn fire which has been smouldering in her lower freight compartments for the last thirty-six hours. The fire was discovered when the Iroquois was off Cape May in the first ward compartment. Quarantine was passed at 2 P. M. yesterday, but nothing was said about the blaze in the hold and when the Iroquois docked at her berth, foot of Dover street, the passengers landed without one knowing of the danger. The treight in three of the compartments reached by the fire was removed and the Chapman Wrecking Company's tug towed NEW YORK, October 4 .- An evening pape reached by the fire was removed and the langman Wrecking Company's tug towed the lroquois to the mud flats in Communipaw. Here herhold was entirely flooded with water and the obstinate, persistent fire subdued about 2 o'clock this morning. William P. Clydis, representative of the Jine, spent the night at frequois directing the effects to quench flames. The origin of the fire, as in the case of many similar laden with cotton, is that the fire which has broken out on steamships recently is a mystery. The water has been pumped out, and the damage done found to be very slight, not exceeding $250. Captain Pannington, commander of froquois, said for it to spread,

Peculiar

Peculiar in combination, proportion and preparation of ingredients, Hood's Sarsaparilla possesses the full curative value of the best known remedies of the vegetable kingdom.

Peculiar in its modicinal merit, Hood's Sarsaparilla accomplishes cures hitherto unknown.

Peculiar in strength and economy—Hood's Sarsaparilla is the only medicine of which can truly be said, "100 doses one dollar." Medicines in larger and smaller hottles require larger doses, and do not produce as good results as Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Peculiar in its "good name at home"—there is more of Hood's Sarsaparilla sold in Lowell, where it is made, than of all other blood purifiers.

Peculiar in its phenomenal record of sales abroad, no other preparation has ever attained such popularity in so short a time. Do not be induced to take any other preparation. Be suretoges Hood's Sarsaparilla beginning at 12 o'clock M., about 150 LOTS in the plan of "Rennie"," on the east side of the Brook road and about one mile from the city. This is the pretilest plot of land in that growing secrion, and the improvements now making in that direction, both this side and beyond, coupled with the superb highway to be at once constructed out of that abomination known as the "Brook Tarnpika," combine to make this the mest promising suburb around the city.

The healthfulness of the location and the excellence of the neighborhood are things known to every one, and the nearness of the location and the excellence of the neighborhood are things known to every one, and the nearness of the lots make them desirable for all-the-year-around homes. This is the first subdivision and sale of this choice property, and as prices will rule low by comparison with what they will probably be two years hence.
